Vicars Ponderings #3 – Oct 2017 Worship

What is worship? The definition of worship is paying homage and reverent honour to a person; in Christianity, this reverent honour and homage is paid to God.

In the New Testament there are various words are used for worship. The word proskuneo "to worship" means to bow down to gods or kings. Throughout most of Christianity's history, corporate Christian worship has been liturgical, characterized by prayers and hymns, with texts rooted in, or closely related to Scripture, particularly the Psalter.

Being a musician one of my passions is musical worship. The church I came from in Coventry, and where I became a Christian, had a wide variety of worship styles from singing traditional hymns with a choir and organ to more contemporary worship songs with a band, in which I was of course the drummer!! We also had experimental services which the service leaders had pretty much a free hand in how the service was constructed and the feel of it; these could be anything from quiet contemplative services with lots of candles and Taizé style music, to quite lively band led services, to drama you name it we probably tried it!!

All this variety allowed people who preferred different styles and preferences to worship in a way that was true to their background, their personal music style preference, personality and it also enabled people to try alternative forms of worship that they had not experienced before. One of my favourite readings from the Psalter, is Psalm 150

Psalm 150

Praise for God's Surpassing Greatness

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty firmament

<sup>2</sup> Praise him for his mighty deeds;
praise him according to his surpassing greatness!

<sup>3</sup> Praise him with trumpet sound;
praise him with lute and harp!

<sup>4</sup> Praise him with tambourine and dance;
praise him with strings and pipe!

<sup>5</sup> Praise him with clanging cymbals;

Praise the LORD!

I suppose, being a percussionist, I relate to it because of the cymbals and tambourines! Of course the writer of the Psalm was relating to instruments played in worship and culture of the day. So today, we could rewrite the Psalm and include all sorts of instruments, like guitars, keyboards, drum kits of course!, mouth organ, synthesizers, Oboe, piano, organ, djembe, the list, could go on!

The Psalmist first and foremost is exhorting exuberant praise, with passion, with everything we have.

Whether we worship in a quiet Taizé style or in a small village church, to cathedrals to a gathering of thousands, we are called to worship God with all our being, with all our heart, with all our soul.

God made us all different, no one person is the same as another, the variety is mind blowing! Humanity is like a kaleidoscope! And so it is with worship, we all worship God differently, in our own unique way.

I wonder, what does exuberant worship mean to you?

Would you like to experience worship in a different style than you're used to? Why not have a chat with me, I would love to hear what worship means to you..

Blessings

Catherine

The glass

To the optimist, the glass is half full. To the pessimist, the glass is half empty. To the engineer, the glass is twice as big as it needs to be.

There are three religious truths:

- a. Jews do not recognise Jesus as the Messiah.
- b. Protestants do not recognise the Pope as the leader of the Christian faith.
- c. Baptists and Methodists do not recognise each other in the off-licence.

An Introduction

from Guy Hewlett, the new Team Rector

Someone I met recently said to me ‘welcome to the centre of the universe, the Black Country’.

I explained that I am licensed to our 3 churches in the parish of Gornal and Sedgley. He then said ‘welcome to the centre of the centre of the universe, Gornal’. Well I am not sure about all that but we are very happy to be here!

We ‘landed’ in Sedgley on the 14th August, and had a couple of weeks to unpack and prepare for my licensing service on the 3rd September, which was a wonderful day.

As we come to the end of our second week with you Jackie and I would like to say a huge thank you for the warmth of your welcome to the Gornal and Sedgley Team. Moving house and work at the same time is never without its pressures, but we are settling in well, not least of all because of your welcome.

I thought it might be the time to tell you something about ourselves. Before moving to the parish I was Chaplain to the Worcestershire Acute Hospitals NHS Trust – covering the Worcestershire Royal Hospital, Kidderminster Hospital and The Alexandra Hospital in Redditch. I have spent a challenging and deeply satisfying 4 years in that post, but have felt called by God to move on, and God led us to Gornal and Sedgley.

I was born in London, and raised in Cambridgeshire; I studied psychology in London, married Jackie in Worcestershire, lived and worked in London and became parent to 2 wonderful children! Our son James is married to Rachel – they have Abigail who is 2; and our daughter Ann-Marie who is married to Sam, and they have Caleb who is 2 and Faith who is 6 months. They all live close by which we are very glad about.

I worked as a Police Officer in London for many years; I was Curate for 3 years at St Andrew Sudbury in London Diocese, working as a self-supporting minister, before becoming Vicar of St Michael and All Angels Church in Harrow Weald. We were there for 14 years and saw God move in very wonderful ways to build the church up.

I am a spiritual director, love Ignatian spirituality and describe myself as an open evangelical. I enjoy supporting others as they explore their journey with God ...'

In 2013 I moved to my role as Hospital Chaplain. I am currently Bishop John's Advisor on Health Care Chaplaincy, and I support other Ministers in the Ministerial Development programme in our diocese.

Jackie is a Nurse Specialist in Worcestershire, working across the county. She trained and worked in London, but originally came from Coventry. We married in 1982 in Kidderminster after Jackie's Mum and Dad moved there.

We are looking forward to getting to know you all and working with you. Jackie and I are having an 'Open House' on Saturday the 7th October between 2.30 pm and 4.30 pm. WE would love you to come to All Saints Vicarage to say hello and share some tea and cake!

Hope to see you there!!

Be assured of my love and prayers as we step out together in this new phase of our journey together with God.

Middle age is when broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist change places.

Sticks

Long ago when men cursed and beat the ground with sticks, it was called witchcraft. - Today, it's called golf.

A letter from The Archdeacon of Dudley

Nikki Groarke Archdeacon of Dudley

Have you ever had a moment when something from the Bible you know to be true, takes on a much deeper meaning, or impacts you at a deeper level?

This happened to me when I was privileged to attend a service in St Stephen's, Redditch celebrating the lives of transplant recipients, organ donors and their families. 'Gifts Beyond Price' was the brainchild of Elaine Whitfield, a relatively new member of the church, and she planned the most beautiful and moving event, attended, to her surprise, by people from all over the country. Elaine's father, Arthur, died in 2016. For the last twenty five years of his life, his blood was pumped around his body by a donor heart – he had benefitted from a transplant which had saved his life, and given him many more years than anticipated. It was this that Elaine wanted to express her thankfulness for, both to donor families, and to God.

In a profound symbolic act as part of the service, Natasha, recipient sixteen years ago of a donated heart and lungs when in her early twenties and close to death, lit eight candles, representing the lives one donor can save. Wendy, the mother of Jack, who died in a tragic accident last year, and whose organs were donated, then extinguished a large central candle, amidst hugs and tears, after speaking movingly to each other as representatives of each group, giving thanks for the lives involved. The Lead Retrieval Surgeon and Transplant Specialist from the QE hospital articulated some of the challenging dilemmas involved for his team, and both the joys, sorrows and weighty responsibility he experiences in making time sensitive decisions about life and death amidst tragedy. As a Muslim, he spoke powerfully about our shared humanity. The Reverend Paul Lawlor picked this up in his address too. Never have Jesus' words in John 15 had such resonance: "There is no greater love than this, that someone should lay down their life for their friends."

Jesus, in a sense, donated his life, that we might live life in all its fullness forever. Talking with many after the service who had received the gift of new life through the gift of a friend, or the death of a stranger, the love of God for each person he has made impacted me afresh. God so loved the world that he gave his Son ....

I resolved that day to live my life more fully, more gratefully, more aware of what it cost. I also spoke to my family making clear that should they ever be put in that awful place of decision, my bodily organs should, if possible, be used to bring life to others, as my life with God will continue into eternity, because Jesus laid down his life and lives in me.

The Perfect Minister

When looking for a new minister, it may be helpful to bear the following in mind:

The Perfect Minister preaches exactly 10 minutes. He condemns sin roundly, but never hurts anyone's feelings. He works from 8 a.m. until midnight, and is also the church handyman.

The Perfect Minister lives on a very small salary, wears good clothes, drives a good car, buys good books, and donates £30 a week to the church. He is 29 years old and has 40 years' worth of experience. Above all, he is handsome.

The Perfect Minister has a burning desire to work with teenagers, and he spends most of his time with the senior citizens. He smiles all the time with a straight face because he has a sense of humour that keeps him seriously dedicated to his church. He makes 15 home visits a day and is always in his office to be handy when needed.

The Perfect Minister always has time for church meetings and all of its committees, never missing the meeting of any church organisation. And he is always busy evangelising the unchurched. He also spends hours preparing couples for their weddings, hours preparing parents for their baby's baptism, and hours visiting the bereaved. But his life is dedicated to solitude, prayer and meditation.

The Perfect Minister is always in the next town over! So if you think that our minister does not measure up, it has been suggested that we simply send this notice to six other churches that are tired of their minister. The idea is that we bundle up our minister and send him to the church at the top of our list. If everyone cooperates, in one week we will receive 1,643 new ministers. One of them should be perfect. Have faith in this plan. One church broke the chain and got its old minister back in less than three months.

Ladies' Society A.G.M. and Cheese and Wine.

The A.G.M. held in September was well attended and chaired by Jenny as Geraldine was on holiday. The business of the A.G.M. was speedily carried out with reports of Chairman and Treasurer being accepted. The Committee remains the same as do the rules of membership.

Sadly Molly has retired from her reporting role and we thank her for many years of excellent reports of our meetings.

Anne will continue with the support of Karen.

The matter of subscriptions was raised due to increasing fees of speakers but was left for discussion until Geraldine returns.

Ladies were asked to bring gifts for the tombola stall to the October meeting. The Christmas Tree Festival this year has a theme of Poems / Rhymes, so ideas were welcomed to represent our contribution. With business over the pleasantries of the evening could begin.

The AGM as usual is followed by Cheese and Wine and a chance to catch up on Summer activities. We also had two special birthdays to celebrate ( never ask a lady her age). Audrey and Karen brought wine and cake to enjoy. They were each given a beautiful plant. Jackie, our new Rector's wife was introduced and welcomed and she valiantly moved among us trying to remember our names. What a mammoth task!

We look forward to the theatre visit later this month to enjoy "South Pacific".

Our next meeting in October is a presentation by Ben Cole about Be-dazzle Charity. I'm sure this will be most interesting and I hope to see you all.

Anne Wakefield

MOTHERS' UNION

At our first meeting back after the Summer we welcomed our Diocesan President Liz Green who talked to us about the many projects we have in the Deanery. The support we give to the Women's Refuge and Teenage Mums, knitting for the baby unit at Russells Hall Hospital, prayer shawls for Mary Stevens Hospice, and AFIA, that provides holidays and days out for people experiencing difficulties in their family life, and who would not otherwise be able to have a holiday.

All these projects are supported by members actively and with prayer. We were delighted to have Guy with us, who celebrated communion and stayed to the meeting.

Thank you to those members who attended the Deanery Festival at St Mark's, Pensnett. The theme of the service was Faith in Action and Revd Sue Oliver gave the address.

Congratulations to Denise Chappell, Maureen Iddles, Iris Smith, Dorothy Turton and Maureen Wassell who were presented with Long Service Awards for 20 years membership.

Our Christmas meal is on Tuesday 5th December, 12.30pm, at The Lodge. The cost is £15.25. If you wish to go and have not already signed the list please let Anne or myself know. Anne will need payment by the middle of October.

I feel that Music is disappearing in the Churches and this is very sad. In the past a great deal of our brilliant Composers first went to Church and gained their love of Music.

The act of singing is good for you, because you have to breathe deeply to sing. You need to listen to each other to sing in harmony. It is a way of making lasting friendships, as you share the same interests.

I first learnt to sing in Sunday school, which I expect many of our Congregation had the same experience. I know a number of Choirs have been started outside the Church. Music has a calming effect; a peaceful feeling, another dimension to life. Like looking at a good painting or any Art Work or Literature.

Should we have turned Christmas inside-out ?

Well we have, haven't we? The ancient Church decided that the Christmas festival should start at midnight on 24th December and last for 12 days until midnight 5th January.

However increasingly in the last 50 years we celebrate Christmas during Advent. The lights go on in late November, the decorations start to appear in house windows and shops and streets, and the ubiquitous carols are heard everywhere. Plus of course the many Christmas songs that we enjoy – God bless Noddy Holder. Schools and Churches hold Christmas carol services in Advent and even the famous King's College Carol Service takes place during the day before the official start of Christmas.

Traditionalists may think that this is bad thing – but is it ? For a whole month before the great event Christ's name is heard throughout the whole world. No organisation could possibly afford such huge publicity for the name of the Saviour of the world.

So perhaps we should be grateful for this and make the best of this chance to remind people across the whole earth of the shattering news of a very special baby's birth.

On the perils of trainers, high heels and soft shoes in church

The Rectory
St. James the Least

My dear Nephew Darren

Having informed you of why clergy must always wear black shoes in church, my belief is that all those who hold any office in church should be similarly dressed.

Altar servers have the tendency to arrive wearing what I am informed are called trainers. Were they black it would be tolerable, but they seem to be without exception either brilliant white or luminous pink. When they arrive so attired I insist they remove them and serve in the sanctuary in their socks. Since our church floor is several degrees colder than permafrost, it normally takes them the rest of the morning with their feet in a bucket of hot water before circulation returns. They do not make that mistake a second time.

The rule applies to members of the choir also; my only concession is that ladies are allowed to wear shoes with heels. But that can present its own hazards. Miss Threlfall recently appeared in heels that, by chance, were the exact size and shape of the holes in our beautiful Victorian heating gratings in the nave floor. During the procession at the start of the Service, her heel wedged in one. She is a lady of some determination and refused to stop, thereby holding up the procession and letting the congregation know something was amiss. So she proceeded, now with a twelve inch square cast iron grid firmly attached to her foot. As she gallantly clanked up the aisle, rocking slightly since one leg was now several stones heavier, one of our basses, completely innocent of what had happened, stepped into thin air. Half of his body disappeared vertically downwards as the other half proceeded in a horizontal easterly direction, scattering tenors like skittles. I continue to visit him in hospital.

Our organist arrives wearing black shoes, but once hidden in the organ loft, removes them and plays the organ in soft shoes. Or he did; these days he never removes his shoes at all. At Evensong on Sundays, my dog comes with me to swell the congregation and wanders round the church benignly as the Service progresses. After one Service, our organist came to retrieve his shoes only to find them missing. Their absence was inexplicable - until two weeks later when I found them buried in the Rectory rose garden.

Churchwardens, of course, know the rules for correct footwear - that is why they have been elected to serve in such a distinguished office - although I do feel that Admiral Hopkinson's practice of wearing white spats on top of his shoes when the bishop is here, a little excessive - even rather flash.

Maintaining this dress policy once you have your own church, will be maintaining the true faith.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

The improvement to the Church Hall entrance and doors is now complete, this will add to the appearance and security. Thanks go to the 200 club for the funding, Noah's Ark for the fitted mat and to John Anderson for the organisation

Children's Society Autumn Fayre

Saturday 14th October 2017 at 11.00 a.m.

This is a reminder to our many supporters that the annual Children's Society Autumn Fayre will be held in All Saints' Church Hall

For many years our Fayre has been successful due to support of people from all of the eight churches represented by the Committee. We would obviously love to see you again this year for coffee, lunch or just for a browse and chat.

All Saints' will run the tombola, so we need additional gifts, including ones for the jewellery stall.

There is a special treat this year

St. Andrew's Little Angels
will be singing for us.

Ivy Slater, Anne Hart and Gail Griffiths already have tickets for sale and, as usual, we shall have Christmas Cards available at the Fayre.

Accident

As my five-year-old son and I were heading to McDonald's one day, we passed a car accident. Usually when we see something terrible like that, we say a prayer for whoever might be hurt, so I pointed and said to my son, "We should pray." From the back seat I heard his earnest voice: "Dear God, please don't let those cars block the entrance to McDonald's."

Unlock the value of your home

A lifetime mortgage could help you and your family enjoy life

As a homeowner, your property is probably your biggest asset, but have you ever considered releasing some of the tax-free cash tied up in it? Best of all, you can use the cash lump sum however you wish:

- Boost your retirement income
- Settle your existing mortgage
- Help your family onto the property ladder
- Carry out home improvements

If you're a UK homeowner aged 55 or over, with a property value of at least £100,000, then a lifetime mortgage available through The Right Equity Release could be right for you.

Start enjoying your retirement now

or email: david.bayliss@therightequityrelease.co.uk

This is a lifetime mortgage. It may affect your entitlement to state benefits and will reduce the value of your estate. Think carefully before securing other debts against your home. To understand the features and risks, ask for a personalised illustration. The Right Equity Release does not charge any up front fees. A fixed fee is only charged on completion of an Equity Release Plan. Typically, this is 1.5% of the total facility or £995 whichever is the greater. The Right Equity Release Ltd is authorised & regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. Registered in England 07166676.
